A performance is only as good as the performers, therefore the "Gold Fever Follies" has looked throughout the Kootenays and believes to have found the very best the Kootenays has to offer. We would like to have you meet them . . .

T.J. MASON, a student at J.L. Crowe High School in Trail, has been performing for the past several years. T.J. was born in Halifax, N.S. and has had the opportunity to live in Duncan, Victoria and of course Trail.

YVONNE MINOR, a grade 11 student from right here in beautiful Rossland, enjoys dancing two times a week, playing the flute in the school band, numerous sports and community events. She plans to pursue a career in optometry as well as continuing with her dance.

PHIL WIEBE, claims to have been born in the Amazon rain forest, raised by duck-billed platypuses and then was rejected when it was apparent he was not one. Phil now lives in Castlegar but plans to move to Langley in the fall to continue with his acting career.

DARLA LEIDING, a Saskatchewan born graduate of Stanley Humphries, won the "Most Outstanding Actress Award" in the Nelson Drama

Festival last year. We are proud to announce Darla was crowned "Miss Castlegar" during the Sunfest celebration in Castlegar in early June. Darla plans to become a physiotherapist specializing in infants.

SUE DIAZ, a grade 10 student at Crowe, was born in Squamish and naturally took to water. She has successfully competed with the Trail - Warfield Stingrays Swim Club for 6 years. She also has an avid interest in music and theatre with her dream to be on the stage.

TRACY HART, a 15 year old veteran of the Follies, brings her diverse talents back to our stage. Tracy has won 3 scholarships and 9 trophies this year alone at dance festivals. Currently a member of "Kootenay Kids" and a teacher at Hart Dance Studios, Tracy plans to pursue a professional career in Toronto.

ETHAN REITZ, 16 years old, born in the U.S., moved to Canada when he was 4. His family homesteaded on an isolated Indian reservation until he was 13. He studied drama in Kelowna and has taken part in several school productions. Ethan landed a major role in "Grease", the Nelson High School production. Ethan also writes poetry and short stories, enjoys all kinds of music, walking in the rain and wearing cowboy clothes.

JENNIFER KONG (Jenny), an accomplished pianist, loves to tell really bad jokes to see people smile. Jenny plays the piano for a local ballet school, the flute in band and has been active in drama. She is ready and raring to enter UBC to begin the long journey to become a doctor.

JEFF MILLER, an 18 year old Crowe graduate, is very musical. Jeff plays the saxophone and sings in a variety of groups. Other interests include swimming, water skiing and playing squash. Jeff plans to attend WSU to pursue a career in the performing arts.
